History of the Order

THE Military Order of the Carabao was organized at Manila, P. I., in November, 1900, for the purpose of fostering a high standard of military and social duty and to perpetuate the memories and associations of military service in the Philippines during the early days of American occupation.

The origin of the Order grew out of an idea conceived at a dinner at the Officers' Club in Manila shortly after the return of troops from China in 1900. The name was suggested by Major George L. Byram, U. S. A., in recognition of the services rendered to the American forces by the faithful Carabao, the principal beast of burden in the Philippines. The Carabao, the patron saint of the Order, has ever since been praised in song and verse by every soldier of the Philippine campaigns in honor of the indispensable services rendered in the absence of the Army mule.

MILITARY ORDER OF THE CARABAO

The founders of the Order had no idea that the organization would ever attain its present proportions. Its growth, however, has been rapid and continuous and its roll at the present time contains nearly two thousand names, among which may be found nearly all of the prominent Army and Navy officers who served during the early campaigns in the Philippines.

The first regular meeting of the organization was held on April 5, 1901, at the quarters of Lieutenant-Colonel George P. Scriven and Major B. H. Randolph, on Calle San Jose, Ermita, Manila. At this meeting Major Randolph was elected temporary president and preliminary steps were at once taken to draft a constitution.

The first regular election of officers was had at a meeting held May 3, 1901, which resulted as follows:

President and Grand Paramount Carabao, Lieutenant-Colonel Charles A. Woodruff, U. S. A.;

Vice-President and Patriarch of the Herd, Major B. H. Randolph, U. S. A.;

Esteemed Lead Carabao, Major C. B. Sears, U. S. A.;

Esteemed Wheel Carabao, Major R. R. Stevens, U. S. A.;

Grand Gamboling Carabao, Captain Thomas

Veterinario, Captain Charles E. Stanton, U.

Chief Vaquero, Captain William E. Craighill,

June 14, 1901, a committee was appointed to formulate regulations for the organization of branch societies of the Order in the United States and to fix the names of such branches, and upon the recommendation of this committee it was decided to call the branch societies "Corrals" and that the society in Manila should thereafter be designated the "Main Corral," the qualifications for membership and officers to be the same as those for the Main Corral.

October 11, 1901, a committee which had been appointed for the purpose presented a draft of a constitution and regulations, and the same was discussed and many changes proposed, with the result that the committee was directed to prepare a new draft to be acted upon at a subsequent meeting.

December 19, 1902, upon the application from members of the Order stationed at Fort Sheridan, Ill., and San Francisco, Cal., authority was granted by the Main Corral for the establishment of branch corrals at those places.

February 13, 1903, the first action was taken by the Main Corral relative to the moving of the said corral from the Philippine Islands to the United States. Such a change became necessary at this time by reason of the fact that many of the military and naval forces which had been stationed in the Philippines during the formation of the Order were ordered back to the United States and other organizations were sent to take their places, leaving but few of the original members or those eligible to become members stationed in the Islands. Much confusion also resulted in the States by the long delay in getting communications to and from the Islands, and it soon became necessary that the location of the Main Corral should be at a more central and convenient place. At the above meeting a vote was taken to determine where the Main Corral should be located. Some of the members thought it should be located in San Francisco, others thought that it should be located in Washington, but as a majority of the members present were in favor of retaining the corral in Manila, no further action was taken on the matter at this time.

February 27, 1903, upon the application of certain members, authority was granted by the Main Corral for the establishment of a branch corral at Camp Bumpus, P. I.

April 3, 1903, upon a similar application, authority was granted for the establishment of a branch corral at Fort Wayne, Mich.

May 1, 1903, authority was granted to establish a branch corral at Jolo, P. I.

July 24, 1903, action was taken on a petition from members to establish a Deputy Main Corral in Washington, D. C. After considerable discussion it was decided that it would not be advisable to issue a charter for a Deputy Main Corral under the existing circumstances, but that a charter for a branch corral might be issued. The application was therefore referred to a committee which recommended that a charter for a branch corral be issued, which recommendation was approved, and a charter directed issued. On the same date the committee on the constitution was directed to prepare a perfect draft of the constitution which had been read and discussed at previous meetings, and to have the same ready at the next meeting, and on August 29, 1903, the committee presented the draft of the constitution as directed and the same was finally adopted. This constitution provided for the location of the Main Corral in Washington, D. C. It was also decided at this meeting that all records, books, correspondence, etc., pertaining to the Main Corral in Manila should be turned over on June 30, 1904, to the Main Corral in Washington, and that the corral in Manila should thereafter be known as the Manila Corral.

September 11, 1903, the following officers were elected under the new constitution for the ensuing year:

Grand Paramount Carabao, Brigadier-General Chas. A. Woodruff, U. S. A.;

Grand Patriarch of the Herd, Brigadier-General William P. Rogers;

Grand Lead Carabao, Captain J. W. McAndrew, U. S. A.;

Grand Wheel Carabao, Lieutenant-Commander J. J. Knapp, U. S. N.

MILITARY ORDER OF THE CARABAO

May 27, 1904, a charter was granted to members of the Order stationed at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, and Fort Assiniboine, Mont., for the establishment of branch corrals at those places.

June 30, 1904, the first regular meeting of the Main Corral in Washington was held in the office of Paymaster-General Harris, U. S. N., at which meeting the following officers were elected Grand Officers of the Main Corral to serve during the ensuing year:

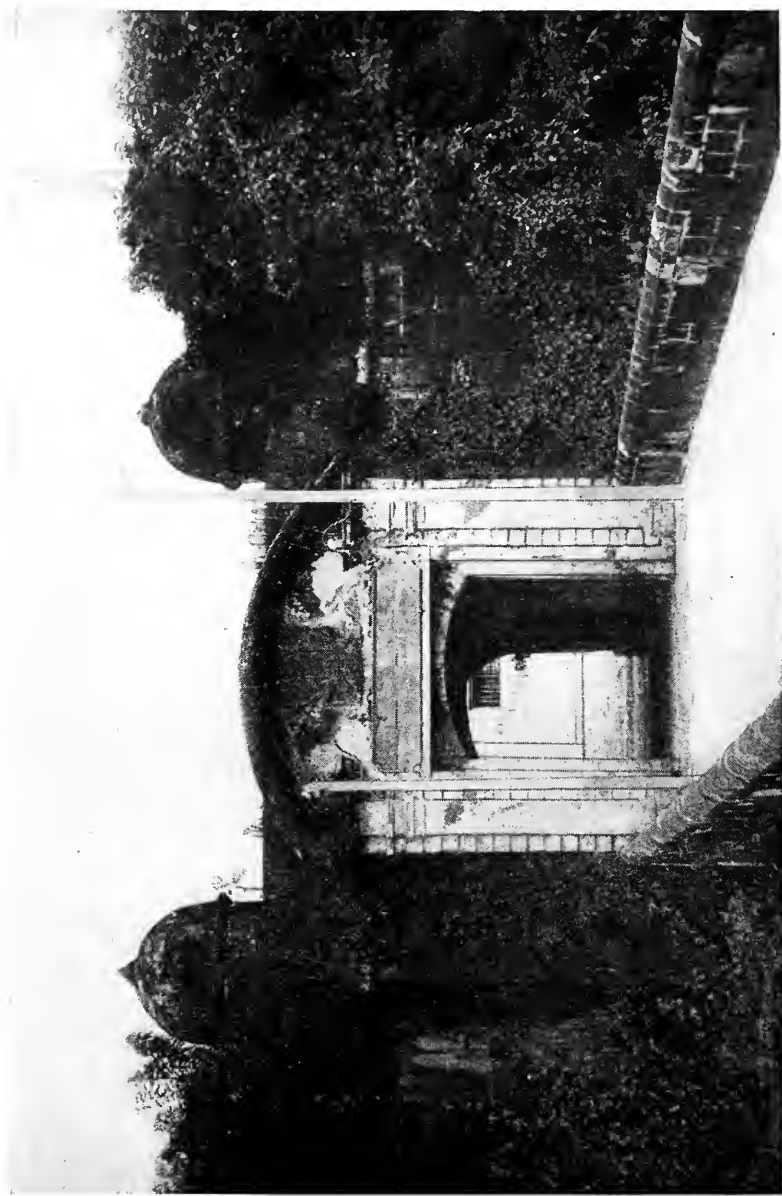

Grand Paramount Carabao, General Chas. F. Humphrey, U. S. A.;

Grand Patriarch of the Herd, Admiral H. T. B. Harris, U. S. N.

Grand Lead and Wheel Carabao, Major I. W. Littell, U. S. A.

Owing to the delay in copying the records in Manila, the record books, correspondence, etc., which were supposed to have been turned over to the Main Corral in Washington on June 30, 1904, were not received until about a year later. When the records were finally received in 1905 it was some time before the records of the two corrals could be consolidated and put in shape.

June 30, 1905, a meeting of the Main Corral was held in the office of the Quartermaster-Gen-

Branch Corrals

While numerous branch corrals have been established from time to time, most of them have, owing to the withdrawal or changing of troops from one station to another, been abandoned, and at the present time there are only five active corrals, as follows:

Manila Corral, No. 1, located in Manila, P. I.

San Francisco Corral, No. 3, located in San Francisco, Cal.

Washington Corral, No. 7, located in Washington, D. C.

San Antonio Corral, No. 9, located at Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

Virginia Corral, No. 13, located at Fort Monroe, Va.

THE MANILA CORRAL.

The Manila Corral, which up to June 30, 1904, was known as the Main Corral, has a membership of approximately 500, including resident and non-resident members.

Due to the constant changing of the organizations in the Philippines during the past three or four years, the officers of the Manila Corral have experienced considerable difficulty in keeping up the proper enthusiasm among its members. Recent reports, however, from Major H. C. Reisinger, U. S. M. C., who has just been elected Lead and Wheel Carabao of this corral, show that the corral is now being reorganized and every effort is being made to bring the members together and place the corral upon a proper business footing.

THE SAN FRANCISCO CORRAL.

This corral was established by authority of the Main Corral, December 19, 1902. The corral was organized early in January, 1903, and five Hombres were initiated. Two preliminary meetings and the institution of the corral took place on January 24, 1903, in the St. Nicholas Hotel, on Market Street, and the first regular meeting was held on Saturday evening, March 28, 1903, in the Occidental Hotel, General Chas. A. Woodruff being the first Paramount Carabao of the corral.

The growth of the San Francisco corral has been steady, and owing to the loyal work of all its members the corral has been highly prosperous, there being carried on its rolls at the present time 111 members.

Meetings have been held quarterly, at first in various hotels, but after the disaster of 1906, on a transport, and in the Officers' Club of the Presidio of San Francisco, and later in the Army and Navy Club. The first banquet of the corral, in celebration of its establishment, was held at the Bohemian Club, February 28, 1903, and was a great success.

The first meeting of the Carabaos in Washington, D. C., took place at the Army and Navy Club, May 9, 1903, for the purpose of discussing ways and means for the establishment of a branch corral. The authority to establish a branch corral in Washington, D. C., was granted to Carabao J. J. Knapp and others, July 24, 1903, and the first meeting of the Washington Corral was held August 1, 1903. This corral has steadily grown in size and importance, and on July 1, 1913, the membership consisted of 553 Veteran Carabaos, 2 Hereditary Carabaos, 3 Tenero (Calf) Carabaos, and 3 Associate Carabaos.

The Annual Dinner by the Washington Corral, held in Washington, is each year growing in popularity and importance. It is an occasion when the most distinguished men of our nation are gathered about the festive board, memories of the "Days of the Empire" in the Philippines are recalled and acquaintances renewed. The number of guests at these dinners have greatly increased each year. In 1909 there were 150 guests and Carabaos present; in 1910, 250; in 1911, 265; in 1912, 362.

I

GOVERNOR-GENERAL

Oh, I've been having a h—l of a time since I came to the Philippines;
I'd rather drive a bob-tail car and live on pork and beans.
They call me Governor-General—I'm the hero of the day,
But I have troubles of my own, and often have to say:

CHORUS

Oh, am I the boss, or am I the tool?
Am I the Governor-General or a hobo?
I'd like to know who's the boss of this show—
Is it me, or Emilio Aguinaldo?

The rebels up at old Tarlac, four men to every gun—
I think the trouble is at an end, they think it's just begun;
My men go out to have a fight, the rebels fade away:
I cable home the trouble's o'er, but to myself I say.—CHO.

Now General MacArthur, I have no doubt, can run the whole concern
All right, I'll pack my trunk and go, and he can take his turn;
But when the papers "cuss him out," and lay him on the shelf,
I only ask the privilege of saying to myself:

CLOSING CHORUS

Oh, is Mac the boss, or is Mac the tool?
Is Mac the Governor-General or a hobo?
I'd like to know who'll be boss of this show—
Will it be Mac or Emilio Aguinaldo?

THE SOLDIER'S SONG

AIR: "Tramp, tramp, tramp, the boys are marching"

In that land of dopey dreams, happy, peaceful Philippines,
Where the bolo-man is hiking night and day,
Where Insurrectos steal and lie, where Americanos die,
There you hear the soldiers sing this evening lay:

CHORUS

Damn, damn, damn the Insurrectos, cross-eyed kakiack ladrones,

Underneath the starry flag, civilize 'em with a Krag,
And return us to our own beloved homes.

Underneath the nipa thatch, where the skinny chickens scratch,

Only refuge after hiking all day long;
When I lay me down to sleep, slimy lizards o'er me creep,
Then you hear the soldiers sing this evening song.

CHO.—Damn, damn, damn the Insurrectos, etc.

Social customs there are few, all the ladies smoke and chew
And the men do things the padres say are wrong;

But the padres cut no ice, for they live on fish and rice
When you hear the soldiers sing this evening song.

CHO.—Damn, damn, damn the Insurrectos, etc.

YOU GRAND OLD CARABAO

AIR: "Beautiful Doll"

O, you Carabao, you great big Carabao,
All the world has heard about you,
We could never herd without you,
O, you Carabao, you great big Carabao,
If you ever leave me I shall have to follow,
Till I find you happy in a great big wallow,
Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, you grand old Carabao.

THE CARABAO SOLDIER MAN

AIR: "Sullivan"

Who has brought us here tonight again to celebrate?
Carabaos, right you are,
In the good old style they're famous for since days of '98?
Carabaos, right you are,
Who dinners give with great propriety,
Though notoriety,
Has said sobriety,
Wouldn't dare to show its face,
Or appear in any place,
Where a Carabao is out to dine.

CHORUS

Carabaos, Carabaos,
As far as I can see,
Carabaos, Carabaos,
Have a damn fine society,
Ready right now to take the road,
Ready to carry any load,
O, there never was a tao made a Carabao,
That wasn't a damn fine soldier man.

AGUINALDO'S G STRING BAND

AIR: "Alexander's Rag Time Band"

O, mi hombre—O, mi hombre, better come along and follow me,
Course you'll like it, so let's hike it,
With a Gugu band in manana land,
O, mi hombre,—O, mi hombre, let me take you to Aguinaldo's,
E string,—G string—bum Carabao band.

CHORUS

Come on and sing, come on and sing,
With the shirt-tail bamboo band.
Come on and sing, come on and sing,
A request is a command.
We are singing of the days,
When we slept in nipa shacks,
With centipedes and other things,
A crawlin' up our backs,
We're glad we've left those days behind,
Now you mind.
Come on and drink, come on and drink,
Lest the Bombinero think,
You shirk the can, you shirk the can,
From which he treats his band,
And if you hear Aguinaldo,
Played in rag time,
Oigate, oigate,—Aguinaldo's G string band.

COLUMBIA, THE GEM OF THE OCEAN

O Columbia, the gem of the ocean,
The home of the brave and the free,
The shrine of each patriot's devotion,
A world offers homage to thee.
Thy mandates make heroes assemble,
When liberty's form stands in view,
Thy banners make tyranny tremble,
When borne by the red, white and blue.

CHORUS

When borne by the red, white and blue,
When borne by the red, white and blue,
Thy banners make tyranny tremble,
When borne by the red, white and blue.

When war winged its wide desolation,
And threatened the land to deform,
The ark then of freedom's foundation,
Columbia rode safe through the storm;
With her garlands of vict'ry around her
When so proudly she bore her brave crew,
With her flag floating proudly before her,
The boast of the red, white and blue.

CHORUS

The wine cup, the wine cup, bring hither,
The boast of the red, white and blue,
With her flag floating proudly before her,
The boast of the red, white and blue.

The wine cup, the wine cup, bring hither,
And fill you it true to the brim,
May the wreaths they have won never wither,
Nor the star of their glory grow dim.
May the service united ne'er sever,
But they to their colors prove true,
The Army and Navy forever,
Three cheers for the red, white and blue.

CHORUS

Three cheers for the red, white and blue,
Three cheers for the red, white and blue,
The Army and Navy forever,
Three cheers for the red, white and blue.

MY OWN UNITED STATES

The poet sings of sunny France,
Fair olive-laden Spain,
The Grecian Isles, Italia's smiles,
And India's torrid plain,
Of Egypt, countless ages old,
Dark Africa's palms and dates.
Let me acclaim the land I name,
My own United States.

CHORUS

I love ev'ry inch of her prairie land
Each stone on her mountain's side.
I love ev'ry drop of the water clear,
That flows in her rivers wide;
I love ev'ry tree, every blade of grass,
Within Columbia's gates!
The Queen of the earth is the land of my birth,
My own United States.

The poet sings of Switzerland,
Braw Scotland's heathered moor,
The shimm'ring sheen of Ireland's green,
Old England's rock-bound shore,
Quaint Holland and the Fatherland
Their charms in verse relates.
Let me acclaim the land I name,
My own United States.

CHRISTENING SONG

AIR: "Simplicitas-Arcadians"

A Carabao! A Carabao!
That's what we'll christen him,
Then let the Bombinero fill the glasses to the brim,
And bottoms up will indicate
Good will toward the candidate.
So be he prince or be he tao,
We'll christen him a Carabao.

TOAST SONG

AIR: "Every Little Movement"

Every proper Carabao at all times must be wet,
It's time to hear that old word "HOW," right now, lest we forget;
So touch the wine glass to those old dreams
Of days in hikey, .dopey Philippines,
And drink together one old-fashioned toast to _____.
(Add name of guest.)

A FILIPINO FAMILY

There was once a Filipino Hombre,
Who ate rice pescado y legumbre,
His trousers were wide, and his shirt hung outside,
And this I say was costumbre.

He lived in a nipa bahay
Which served as a stable and sty;
He slept on a mat with the dogs and the cat
And the rest of the family near by.

His daddy un beun Filipino,
Who never mixed tubig with bino,
Said, "I am no insurrecto, no got gun or bolo,"
Yet used both to kill a vecino.

His mujer once kept a tienda,
Underneath a large stone hacienda,
She chewed buyo, and sold for jaw bone and gold
To soldados who said "no intienda."

Of niños she had dos or tres,
Good types of the Tagola race,
In dry or wet weather, in the all-together,
Would romp and they'd race and they'd chase.

Su hermana fue lavandera,
And slapped clothes in fuerte manera
On a rock in a stream, where the Carabaos dream,
Which gave them a perfume lijera.

His brother, who was a cochero
 Buscaré in Manila dinero;
His prices were high when a cop was near by
 To help scare the poor pasajero.

He once owned a bulic manoc,
 With a haughty and valorous look,
Which lost him a name, y mil pesos tambien,
 So he changed to Monte for luck.

When his pueblo last had a fiesta,
 His family tried to digest a
Mule that had died of glanders inside,
 And now his familia no esta.

ZAMBOANGA

No te vayas, no te vayas de Zamboanga
Que me puedes, que me puedes olvidar,
No te vayas, no te vayas y me dejas,
Que yo senti no puedo estar.

ESTREBILLO

No llores paloma mia, no llores que volvere
No llores, que en cuanto lluege, paloma mia, escribir.

WE ARE CARABAOS

AIR: "He Is an Englishman"—Pinafore

Now we ourselves have said it,
And its greatly to our credit,
That we are Carabaos,
That we are Carabaos,
For we might have been called reindeer,
Or elk, or moose or plain deer,
Or ordinary cows,
Just plain domestic cows,
But in spite of the temptations
Of these other appellations,
We still are Carabaos.
We still are Carabaos.

Now we ourselves have said it,
And it's greatly to our credit,
That we are Carabaos,
That we are Carabaos,
For we might have calmly waited,
And not participated
In the Filipino rows,
Those Filipino rows,
But instead of keeping quiet,
We helped to quell the riot,
And so we're Carabaos,
And so we're Carabaos.

13

DRINK TO THE MEMBERS OF THE CARABAO

AIR: "We are Members of the Midnight Crew"

O, our brothers in the Islands,
Send to us tonight a prayer,
That we remember them who still
Are exiled over there,
While they bear the white man's burden,
Uncle Sam must boost along,
Their voices from the bosque,
Join our chorus good and strong.

CHORUS

We are members of the Carabao,
Ha! Ha! Hombre, here's a good old HOW,
The days that we fought in the Islands
From Jolo to old Luzon,
Were the Empire days which we long to relive
At every feast and wallow that the Carabaos may give,
So here's to absent members and those who are with us now,
Drink to the members of the Carabao.

"THE CARABAO"

WRITTEN BY ARCHIE BUTT

AIR: "Genevieve" or "My Maryland"

Patron Saint of the Illustrious Order of the Carabao.

Oh! Carabao, Old Carabao,
Before they e'er could strike a blow,
Invading Armies must await
Upon thy slow and measured gait.

For who can say that in his hand
Abides the power at thy command?
'Tis in thy mighty force to wield
The fate of Armies in the field.

Oh! Carabao, Old Carabao,
Great monarch of the road art thou!
Thy value rests in merit plain,
Old toiler through the mud and rain.

Well bearest thou thy lowly part,
No weakness knows thy giant heart;
With thy broad horn a single blow
Well couldst thou lay thy master low.

Yet all thy strength thou bindest still,
To slave and suffer at his will;
And steady draw the weary load,
Till death o'ertakes thee on the road.

Oh! Carabao, Old Carabao,
Well could we place upon thy brow
A laurel wreath for work well done
In driving storm and scorching sun.

AIR: "Benny Haven"

Come, fill your glasses, fellows, to the days of long ago,
When the "Americano" soldier hiked the wily "amigo."
Let us drink unto our Order and the guests who are with us now,
And con our reminiscences of the old, old Carabao.

CHORUS

Of the old, old Carabao, of the old, old Carabao,
We'll con our reminiscences of the old, old Carabao.

If you're in a peck of trouble, if you're up against a row,
And you need a willing worker, just call a Carabao.
If you feel the big thirst coming or would like some A-1 chow,
And you want the right companion phone any Carabao.

CHORUS

Phone any Carabao, phone any Carabao,
If you want the right companion, phone any Carabao.

Though he may travel slowly, and not be much on looks,
You can't class him a high-brow for he don't go strong on books,
But he's there in time of trouble, he's a hot one on the hike;
He's the huskiest lad to hustle that's come down or up the pike.

CHORUS

That's ever hit the pike, that's come down or up the pike,
The huskiest lad to hustle that's come down or up the pike.

To our Bombinero witty, we'll drink before we go;
He waters oft the thirsty herd in liquors not malo.
We'll pledge our friends in memory, the army toast, "Here's How."
And ever hold allegiance to the old, old Carabao.

CHORUS

To the old, old Carabao, to the old, old Carabao,
And ever hold allegiance to the old, old Carabao.

He's a persona non grata to the W. C. T. U.
But a nasty proposition to the turbulent Goo-Goo,
So, rally to the wallow and join the great pow-wow,
We'll give a hot-stuff welcome to our brother Carabao.

CHORUS

To our brother Carabao, to the new-born Carabao,
We'll give a hot-stuff welcome to our brother Carabao.

TAKE ME BACK TO THE LAND OF TOMORROW

AIR: "Garden of Love"

Take me back to the land of tomorrow,
Where the days glide along like a dream,
Where the palm trees are lazily waving,
'Neath sunny blue skies all agleam,
Often times when in fancy I wander,
'Mid those radiant tropical scenes,
My heart fills with love and longing
For the fair faraway Philippines.

CARABAOS OF THE NAVY

AIR: "Youngsters of the Navy"

Make way Carabaos,
We represent the Navy,
We must make a splash or two,
Before we go down to Davy,
When you've followed the sea,
In every kind of weather,
Tell you mate, you appreciate,
These hours we spend together.

CHORUS

For we are navy Carabaos,
We're roaming navy Carabaos,
The world is a generous place to browse,
For Carabaos of the navy,
We sail the east and we sail the west,
To find the wallow we like the best,
But when home lights gleam,
We forget the rest,
We Carabaos of the navy.

18

AT NAIAC

AIR: "Mandalay"

By the moss grown church at Naiac, looking lazy at the sea,
There's a gugu girl a-sitting and I know she longs for me,
The wind blows through the palm trees and I think I hear her say

"Come you back, you Yankee soldier, come you back to me today."

Her petticoat is yellow, her camisa it is green,
And her nombre is Teresa, my chocolate colored Queen;
I saw her first a-smoking of an overgrown cheroot,
And a-wasting dainty kisses that should be a soldier's loot.

When the mist was on the rice fields, and the shadows coming slow

She would get her little banjo and sing so soft and low;
With her arm around my shoulder and her cheek pressed up to mine,

We used to watch the warships sailing up Cavite line.

But I've left it all behind me and it's miles and miles away
And there ain't no mobiles running from here to Naiac bay;
And I'm learning in my old home what the three year soldiers say—

When you hear the East a-calling, that you cannot stay away.

I am sick of wasting leather on these gritty paving stones,
And the blasted sleet and drizzle wakes the fever in my bones;

I will gladly board the transport when my home detail is o'er

And with rapture see the gleaming domes along the tropic shore.

Tho' I walk with fifty white girls, down from Woodward to Belle Isle
And they talk of love and loving, and even try to smile,
What do they understand, painted face and chubby hands?
I've a neater, sweeter maiden in a fairer, greener land.

Ship me somewhere west of 'Frisco, where the best is like the worst
And there ain't no ten commandments and a man can raise a thirst
For the Naiac bells are ringing and it's there that I would be,
With a native girl at sunset, looking lazy at the sea.

19

HOME, BOYS, HOME!

Man, born of woman, is a soldier for to be,
He's born to misfortune in every degree,
Of guard mounts and dress parades, he never has his ease,
He has so many masters, that he don't know whom to please.
Home, boys, home, it's home we ought to be,
Home, boys, home, back in God's countree—
Where the ash and the oak; and the weeping willow tree,
And the grass grows green, back in old Amerikee.

(Another version.)

AIR: "Mandalay"

By the mud holes down at Naiac, looking lazy at the bay,
There's a gugu girl a-waiting, and I think I hear her say,
"Come you back, you malo soldier, come you back from o'er the sea,
Come you back and pay your jaw-bone; porque you jaw-bone me?"

Her petticoat is baggy and it reaches to her knees,
Her hair is thin and scraggy and sometimes full of fleas,
Her teeth (the few remaining) are covered with red paint,
And her name, Doña Maria, that of her patron saint.

When the rain filled up the rice-fields and we were wet to the skin,
We'd go down to "Bino Mary's" and get full of Chino gin,
With her arm around my shoulder and her cheek to mine pressed close,
When I'd smell her breath, Oh, Lordy, I thought I'd give up the ghost.

But I've left it all behind me, thank the Lord, I'm miles
away,
And back in God's own country, and there I intend to stay,
And I'm learning in my old home, what all the wise folk say,
"When you hear the East a-calling, you had better stay away."

No more have I the "dhobie" nor the awful "prickly heat."
I walk out of an evening, with a maiden bright and sweet,
Just give me one good Yankee girl, one I can call my own,
And gugu dames are welcome to the man who wrote the poem.

MILITARY ORDER OF THE CARABAO

Oh, the Naiac bells are ringing as they have ofttimes before,
Here electric bells are ringing as we speed to Coney's shore,
As we stood upon the board walk, looking lazy at the sea,
Then I say unto my charmer, "This is good enough for me."

These old paving stones are blessed, compared to Naiac's mud,
And 'tis pleasant to go skating, for it warms a fellow's blood;
I'll walk with a white girl's grandmama and consider myself happy,
You are welcome to the brown ones, you can be their Naiac chappy.

Ship me to the North Pole, or to Africa's sunny shore,
But the hot and sickly Philippines, I don't want any more,
For the Naiac's rain's a-raining and here I'm well and dry,
With a white girl close beside me, looking happy at the sky.

IN THIS WAR, IN THIS GREAT WAR

(By Colonel Robert R. Stevens, U. S. A.)

Them Carabaos they does a stunt,
What folks says beats creation.
It's when they takes an hombre in,
And they calls it 'nitiation.

CHORUS

In this war, in this great war.
Before an hombre goes in a place like that He'd better mind his eye,
Cause before he's through he's liable to,
Want to rise in the air and fly.—Cho.
When a Carabao's on the rocky road,
He ain't very much to go—
But when he gets in the home corral,
They say he's far from slow.—Cho.
Some Carabaos in Manila,
Dey likes a little game,
Kase dey is sure when dey goes in,
Dey'll win out jest the same.—Cho.
And when a stray do come around,
Dey's quiet like and sly,
Until dey gets him in the game,
And den de fur do fly.—Cho.
And when dey turns dat hombre loose,
It does appear like a sin,
There's not enough left in his jeans
To buy a drink of nipa gin.—Cho.
But for all dey does in the home corral,
I know dey is the men,
Dat when dey gets out on de line
Dey's dead in earnest den.—Cho.

ACCESSIONAL

AIR: "Recessional"

A Victorious Ode—1898

Jehovah, Lord, beneath whose smile
Our fathers fought in Freedom's name,
And wrested from the British Isle
Our country, loved and known to fame,
Oh, gracious Lord, withhold thy hand,
While we expand—while we expand.

The doctrine taught by James Monroe,
And maintained through a hundred years,
Was but a bluff; it now must go,
Since we've embraced both hemispheres.
Oh, Lord, extend thy helping hand,
While we expand—while we expand.

We've waved on high the Stripes and Stars,
With Liberty the glad refrain;
We've licked in three successive wars,
Old England, Mexico and Spain.
The chip is on our shoulder yet,
Don't you forget—don't you forget.

ADDITIONAL

So, * * * * *, be advised—
Don't knock this chip off—understand?
For if you do you'll be chastised,
And we'll annex the * * * * *.
We mention this with some regret,
Lest you forget—lest you forget.

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?

And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there,
Oh, say does that star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave?

On the shore dimly seen thro' the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream;
'Tis the star spangled banner; oh, long may it wave
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore,
That the havoc of war and battle's confusion,
A home and a country should leave us no more?
Their blood has wash'd out their foul footsteps' pollution.
No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave;
And the star spangled banner in triumph doth wave
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

Oh thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
Between their loved home and wild war's desolation.
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heaven-rescued land
Praise the pow'r that hath made and preserv'd us a nation!
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"
And the star spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

TENTING ON THE OLD CAMP-GROUND

We're tenting tonight on the old camp-ground,
Give us a song to cheer
Our weary hearts, a song of home,
And friends we love so dear.

CHORUS

Many are the hearts that are weary tonight,
Wishing for the war to cease,
Many are the hearts looking for the right,
To see the dawn of peace.
Tenting tonight, tenting tonight,
Tenting on the old camp-ground.

We've been tenting tonight on the old camp-ground,
Thinking of days gone by,
Of the lov'd ones at home that gave us the hand,
And the tear that said, "Good-bye!"—Cho.

We are tired of war on the old camp-ground,
Many are dead and gone,
Of the brave and true who've left their homes,
Others been wounded long.—Cho.

We've been fighting tonight on the old camp-ground,
Many are lying near;
Some are dead, and some are dying,
Many are in tears.

CHORUS

Many are the hearts that are weary tonight,
Wishing for the war to cease,
Many are the hearts looking for the right,
To see the dawn of peace.
Dying tonight, dying tonight,
Dying on the old camp-ground.

MY OLD KENTUCKY HOME

The sun shines bright in the old Kentucky home,
 'Tis summer, the darkies are gay;
The corn-top's ripe and the meadow's in the bloom,
 While the birds make music all the day;
The young folks roll on the little cabin floor,
 All merry, all happy and bright,
By'n-by Hard Times comes a-knocking at the door,
 Then my old Kentucky Home, good-night!

CHORUS

Weep no more my lady,
 Oh! weep no more today!
We will sing one song for the old Kentucky Home,
 For my old Kentucky Home, far away.

They hunt no more for the possum and the coon,
 On the meadow, the hill, and the shore,
They sing no more by the glimmer of the moon,
 On the bench by the old cabin door;
The day goes by like a shadow o'er the heart,
 With sorrow where all was delight;
The time has come when the darkies have to part,
 Then my old Kentucky Home, good-night!—Cho.

The head must bow and the back will have to bend,
 Wherever the darkey may go;
A few more days and the trouble all will end
 In the field where the sugar canes grow;
A few more days for to tote the weary load,
 No matter, 'twill never be light,
A few more days till we totter on the road,
 Then my old Kentucky Home, good-night!—Cho.

THE CARABAO'S DEFENSE

Duet Between Nancy and Reuben.

(By Col. Robert R. Stevens, U. S. A.)

1.

Reuben, Reuben, I've been wondering,
What's the cause of all this row,
What's this military meetin'
They call the Order of the Carabao.

2.

Nancy, Nancy, I will answer,
It's the Order of the century,
With new conditions it combines
The spirit of the old army.

3.

Reuben, Reuben, I've been thinking,
When to the Carabaos you go,
The spirits of the ancient army,
Are not the only ones that flow.

4.

Nancy, Nancy, I must answer,
With others such things might well be,
But the Carabao, so slow and steady,
Ne'er forgets his dignity.

5.

Reuben, Reuben, I've been thinking
There might still be those who know
That when he goes into a round-up
He is not so powerful slow.

6.

Nancy, Nancy, please consider
That even sages, most sedate,
May relax when necessary
To decide affairs of state.

7.

Reuben, Reuben, I am doubtful
Whether those affairs of state,
Warrant always that the meeting
Keep in session quite so late.

Nancy, Nancy, please remember
It's been said that, now and then,
A little nonsense has been relished
By the best and wisest men.

9.

Reuben, Reuben, I'm still thinking
You should meet as a temperance bee,
And take nothing in your sessions
But a little toast and tea.

10.

Nancy, Nancy, we have done so,
Have spurned the Bombinero's rule,
He's now harmless as the lambkin
That made trouble once at school.

11.

Reuben, Reuben, I've decided
I will not give you a roast
If you'll betray your mystic secrets
And repeat the Carabao's toast.

12.

Nancy, Nancy, our main toast is,
That the dust of a sunny today
May be the mud of a rainy tomorrow,
And help the Carabao on his way.

Reuben, Reuben, I've been wondering
Why this secret you've let go,
And what would save you from the Order,
Should they find that you've done so.

14.

Nancy, Nancy, I will tell you,
There's only one way I know how,
They must pass a special order
To make you a Carabao.

(Applause, hisses, cat-calls, eggs, and vegetables from the audience.)

27

CALL OF THE THIRSTY CARABAO

Ohe Bombinero! ohe Bombinero!
Las vacas tienen sed.
Hey hombre—are you dead?
Ohe Bombinero!

THE LEGEND OF THE CARABAO

AIR: "Tit Willow"

(By Major Frederick Hadra, U. S. V.)

A Carabao sat
On the bank of a stream,
Yelling loud for,
Water, Oh, water, plain water.

His prayer was Answered, so he drank
And he drank
Water, Oh, water, plain water.

But alack and alas,
He slipped on the grass,
And fell in the
Water, Oh, water, plain water.

They pulled him out dead,
With a hole in his head,
And out came the
Water, Oh, water, plain water.

The coroner viewed
The remains of the dead;
His verdict was
Water, Oh, water, plain water.

Since then 'tis said,
Every Carabao's 'fraid,
To drink any
Water, Oh, water, plain water.

So here's to the corrals,
Of his biped pals,
May they never serve
Water, Oh, water, plain water.

29

THE CARABAO AND THE SOLDIER

AIR: "Bullfrog on the Bank"
(By Colonel Robert R. Stevens, U. S. A.)

I.

Oh, the soldier on the bank
And the Carabao in the pool,
Oh, the soldier on the bank
And the Carabao in the pool,
Oh, the soldier on the bank
And the Carabao in the pool,
The soldier called the Carabao
First cousin to a mule.

CHORUS

Singing tra-la-la-la-la, uralio,
Singing tra-la-la-la-la, uralio,
Singing tra-la-la-la-la, singing tra-la-la-la-la,
Tra-la-la, tra-la-la, tra-la-lay-ri-o.

II.

Said the Carabao to the soldier,
"You'll have yourself to thank."
Said the Carabao to the soldier,
"You'll have yourself to thank."
Said the Carabao to the soldier,
"You'll have yourself to thank,
If I should break out of this lake
And throw you over the bank."—Cho.

III.

Said the soldier to the Carabao,
"Where's your heron gone today?"
Said the soldier to the Carabao,
"Where's your heron gone today?"
Said the soldier to the Carabao,
"Where's your heron gone today,
For ticks and flies to bite you big guys,
When your strikers are away?"—Cho.

IV.

Said the Carabao to the soldier,
"My heron's on a lark."
Said the Carabao to the soldier,
"My heron's on a lark."
Said the Carabao to the soldier,
"My heron's on a lark,
But he knows well that he'll catch h——
If he don't show up by dark."—Cho.

V.

Said the soldier to the Carabao,
"The rations are in the cart."
Said the soldier to the Carabao,
"The rations are in the cart."
Said the soldier to the Carabao,
"The rations are in the cart,
And the whole command except the band
Are ready for a start."—Cho.

VI.

Said the Carabao to the soldier,
"Right there you let 'em stay."
Said the Carabao to the soldier,
"Right there you let 'em stay."
Said the Carabao to the soldier,
"Right there you let 'em stay,
For you must know that I won't go,
This is my wallow day."—Cho.

BY OLD FORT SAN FELIPE

AIR: "Mandalay"

By old Fort San Felipe
Looking lazy at the sea,
There's a Filipino maiden,
And I know she thinks of me,
For the wind is in the rice-fields,
And the bells they seem to say,
"Come ye back, ye Yankee soldier,
Come ye back to San Roque."

CHORUS

Come ye back to San Roque,
Where old Dewey's squadron lay,
You could hear their oarlocks chucking
Far across Cavite Bay.
On the road to San Roque,
Where the naked babies play
And the dawn comes up like thunder
From Manila cross the bay.

Her petticoat was piña,
And it had a silken sheen,
Her name was Esmeralda doña Juanita,
She was like a gypsy queen,
And I saw her first a-smoking
Of a whacking white cheroot,
And a-wasting Christian kisses,
On a blooming second lieut.—Cho.

MILITARY ORDER OF THE CARABAO

When the wind was in the palm trees,
And the sun was sinking low,
She would get out her guitarra,
And would play a bolero,
With her arm upon my shoulder,
And her cheek against my cheek,
We would watch the shining searchlights
With their brilliant silvery sheets.—Cho.

Take me somewhere west of 'Frisco,
Where the best is like the worst,
Where there ain't no ten commandments,
And a man can raise a thirst.
For I hear the bugles blowing,
And it's there I'd like to be,
By old Fort San Felipe,
Looking lazy at the sea.

31

DOWN BY OLD MANILA BAY

AIR: "Mandalay"

It's a most amazing country in the far-off Philippines,
An' there's most amusin' people there and most amusin' scenes,
For the conquerors pay tribute and the vanquished have their way,
And the "enemy" is friendly down by old Manila bay.

CHORUS

Down by old Manila bay, where the insurrecto gay
Plays the Yankee for a sucker in a most successful way,
And the natives holding office wink and save their monthly pay,
Down by old Manila bay.

Everything is just the opposite from what it ought to be,
For the victors' mouths are muzzled, while the conquered lips are free,
And the average American is handled like a jay,
By the diplomatic natives, down by old Manila bay.

CHORUS

Down by old Manila bay, where the flying-fishes play,
Where the gugus and mestizos bluff at working all the day,
And the wavelets kiss the mud-beach in a lazy sort of way,
Down by old Manila bay.

The starry banner waves aloft o'er Luzon's conquered isle,
But the law and constitution mustn't follow for awhile,
For the sun is brightly shining while the grafters make their hay,
And Spanish law is still supreme, down by old Manila bay.

CHORUS

Down by old Manila bay, where if I could have my say,
The boys who fought and bled and starved would have a little sway,
And the fuzzy old amigos wouldn't scoop in all the pay,
Down by old Manila bay.

Ship me off to H—l or Texas; ship me anywhere from here,
For although we've whipped these natives; yet they've got us by the ear,
And the insurrecto treasury has gobbled all our pay,
By the tricks well known to natives, down by old Manila bay.

CHORUS

Down by old Manila bay, where the Yankee, day by day,
Wonders when his fellow-countrymen will tumble to the lay,
Of the coffee-cooling grafters who have everything to say,
Down by old Manila bay.

ON THE ROAD TO OLD LUZON

AIR: "On the Road to Mandalay"

In a little nipa cottage on the muddy Pasig's shore,
Sits a sweet Tagola maiden as she sat in days of yore
When she listened to my story 'neath the golden mango tree,
And I clean forgot my family as she sang "Porque" to me.

On the road to old Luzon, where the church bells still chime
on,
And the rain comes down in torrents from the mountains
of Bataan.
On the road to old Luzon, where the church bells still chime
on,
Can't you hear them calling, calling, calling back to old
Luzon?

For her little feet were shoeless, and her pretty shoulders bare,
And the cocoa oil shone glossy, from her mass of raven hair.
How her dark eyes danced with laughter, and her teeth
gleamed pearly white,
As she coquettishly answered: "Me no sabe—yes—all right."

Ship me somewhere west of 'Frisco, where the golden sunset dies,
And the languid, limpid love-light lies in Oriental eyes.
For I hear Manila calling and the church bells chiming on,
"Come ye back, ye Yankee soldier, come ye back to old Luzon."

MILITARY ORDER OF THE CARABAO

How I hate the fogs of 'Frisco and Chicago's streets of stones,
And the fierce Dakota blizzards freeze the marrow in my bones.
How I long for days of sunshine, cocoa grove and mango tree,
And my sweet Tagola maiden just to sing "Porque" to me.

On the road to old Luzon, where the church bells still chime
on,
And the rain comes down in torrents from the mountains
of Bataan.
On the road to old Luzon, where the church bells still chime
on,
Yes, I hear them calling, calling, calling back to old Luzon.

¡USTED QUIDADO!

El soldado trabajando diligente at "fatigue."
Sells his shoes to compra vino and with hell fix up a league—
Muy disgusto 'cause the Doctor marked him duty at "sick call"—
Game of poker—viente pesos, chicken fight—lose 'em all—
Into trouble—in the guard-house—"sixteen fifty" he's multado—
In this business good advice is "¡Quidado!"

When the weather is unpleasant then noticias begin—Mucha genta en los montes—sure tonight they will be in—
Hike out pronto—three days' ration, mucha agua in the rain.
No le así, un combate will not go against the grain.
Quanto vale este gallio? (Tiene hambre el soldado)
And the Filipino answers: "Usted quidado!"

El soldado muy borracho—where t'll'd he get the price?
"Aqui esta un media peso," bastante para mucha rice.
"Necesito mas" y porque? "Vale mucho este bird."
"Quanto?" "Cinco pesos." "That's the worst I ever heard,"
"What you quiere este bote, vamos otro lado?"
And the Filipino answers: "¡Usted quidado!"

The captain of a company has troubles of his own—
Carabao mucho loco—transportation on the bum—
Insurrecto mucho malo, siempre on the run—
Muchacha mucha guapa, Americano quiere some.
"Matrimonio a la Iglesia?" "Nivy—say casado,
"Pere quanto esto ropa?" and she says: "¡Usted quidado!"

ON DATO ALI'S TRAIL

AIR: "I've Been Working on the Railroad"

Oh, sing a song of hikers,
On Dato Ali's trail,
On straight tips from old *Piang
Who ought to be in jail.
Three commands of dough-boys
And one of horseless horse,
Through mud and slime;
Through filth and grime;
We wend our way perforce.

CHORUS

First comes †Kerth with all his looters
Down from ‡Picket way.
They've been hiking in Ligusan
But Buluan they say.
Then we hear from out the northward
A mighty, mighty roar,
§Wolf collecting up the gente
And Carabaos galore.

We're a patient lot of hikers,
If you've got your fingers crossed.
We have it by Bejuca
That Dato Ali's lost.
Sitting in the club we feel
We could end this scrap
With a high-ball at our elbow
We'd mark it on the map.

CHORUS

On the breezes from Talyan
Mapia seems to cry.
||Van Horn cutting up his pack-trains
And burning his palay.
But what is this we see approaching?
'Tis ¶Smith, I do declare,
With each gallant trooper mounted
On a skittish old shanks mare.

NOTE:—*Piang, Dato, supposed to be friendly but really on the fence and helping both sides. †Kerth, Captain Commanding Provisional Company, 23d Infantry. ‡Picket, Fort on Rio Grande, about 8 miles above Cottabato. §Wolf, Captain Commanding Provisional Company 22d Infantry. ||Van Horn, Captain Commanding Provisional Company, 17th Infantry. ¶Smith, Captain Commanding Provisional Company 14th Cavalry, dismounted.

35

IN MINDANAO

AIR: "The Girl I Left Behind Me"

We said good-bye to the brown babaye
In Naiac and Santa Cruz,
And for Mindanao we took our vow
In a glass of foaming booze.

We're camped in the sand of a foreign land
By the mighty Agus river;
With the brush at your toes and the "skeeters" at your nose.
And a kris, perhaps, in your liver.

We've the dhobie-itch and the hamstring hitch,
The jimjams and the fever;
The ping-pong wrist and the bolo fist,
And a bumpus on the liver.

We're going up to Lake Lanao,
To the town they call Marahui;
When the road is built and the Moros "kilt," There'll none of us be sorry.

We're blasting stumps and grading bumps,
Our hands and backs are sore, oh!
We work all day just dreamin' of our pay,
And damn the husky Moros!

When you're pulled from bed with a great big head,
And a weakness o'er you stealing;
The sick report is a fine resort,
To cure that tired feeling.

36

EL SOLDADO AMERICANO

AIR: "Son of a Gambolier"

Man born of woman was a soldier for to be Born to degradation to every degree,
Of guard mounts and dress parades he never gets his ease,
Because he has so many masters he don't know whom to please.

CHORUS

But it's home, boys, home, it's there we ought to be,
Home, boys, home, in the old country,
Where the oak and the ash and the weeping willow tree,
All grow so sweetly, back in North Amerikee.

There's the little adjutant, he's first of them all,
He's out on parade ground before first call,
And if you are slow or should happen to be ill,
It's "Sergeant, do your duty, put the loafer in the mill."

CHORUS

But it's home, boys, home, it's there we ought to be,
Home, boys, home, in the old country,
Where the oak and the ash and the weeping willow tree,
All grow so sweetly, back in North Amerikee.

Early in the morning the provost is about,
He comes to the guard house to turn the prisoners out,
The day's so hot and sultry that you hope to get home soon.
But it's work away you son of a gun, you won't get back till noon.—Cho.

MILITARY ORDER OF THE CARABAO

Early in the morning if you are very ill,
Go to the Medico, he'll give you a pill,
And if you should die, you mustn't give a damn,
The doctor's done his duty, you belong to Uncle Sam.—Cho.

Now, I'm in the guard-house I'm awaiting my discharge,
To hell with all the officers, the provost and the guards,
But when I get to 'Frisco I'll be happy as a clam,
Just thinking of the rotten pork I ate for Uncle Sam.—Cho.

EXPLOSIONS FROM TROPICAL LANGUAGES

AIR: "Boom-da-rara Boom-de-aye"
(By Colonel Robert R. Stevens, U. S. A.)

Poling upstream a flat sampan
Is a way of reaching old Bamban,
Where the Gugus, to a man
When enfiladed, turned and ran.

CHORUS

Bong-a-bong de Bay-am-bang,
Bag-a-bag de Bay-am-bong,
Hully smoke and what are they,
They sound like an outbreak bound this way.

2.

Further north is Bay-am-bang,
Place that once with volleys rang,
Where there came as tough a gang
As ever heard a jail door clang.

3.

Now to help our song along,
Let's take a slam at Bong-a-bong,
Warning, with its signal gong,
Outposts in the mountains strong.

4.

'Cross the range is quaint Bam-bang,
Fragrant with Ylang Ylang,
Where the cuckoo lizards sang
And the natives are too good to hang.

5.

The next town, if our trail's not wrong,
Is quiet, sunny Bay-am-bong,
Home of rest, a peaceful throng,
Place of music and of song.

6.

But we will stop at Bag-a-bag,
Town that never chewed the rag,
Showed an insurrecto flag,
Nor heard the barking of a Krag.

FINALE

(Replacing Chorus)

So we end our song, and now,
Our allegiance do avow,
With our respects and formal bow,
To the Order of the Carabao.

A SOLDIER'S LAMENT

AIR: "Bingen on the Rhine"

A soldier in the cavalry lay on a canvas bunk,
On a soap box there beside him lay a hunk of Army punk.
And as he chewed away and busy, his face turned gray,
For the soldier boy was dying in the Islands far away.

As his comrade knelt beside him to hear what he might say,
The dying soldier faltered, "Bring me a bunch of hay,
For my horse has food in plenty, the grub is left behind,
And I must starve on Bacon, Army Bacon on the Rind."

And as he lay there gasping with the moments flying fast,
He tried to chew a rubber boot 'fore life went out at last.
And he said to his comrade, "Bring me a box of soap,
For they eat it in the frozen north, and where there is life
there is hope.

But, Charlie dear, I greatly fear, my race is almost run, Life's feeble spark will be snuffed out ere the setting of the sun.

Take a message and a token to the dear ones left behind
And say I starved on Bacon, Army Bacon on the Rind."

That evening, just at twilight, as the flag slid down the pole,
We bowed our heads in silence for the parting soul,
But that night beside the camp-fire you could hear his comrades say,
"If he'd had a soldier's rations he'd be alive today.

A curse on the man who did it, tho' with coin his purse be lined,
May he starve on Prunes and Bacon, Army Bacon on the Rind."
In a trim New England cottage sits a mother old and gray.
In her hand she holds a letter that came by mail that day.

And as she sits there reading, her eyes are filled with tears
For the letter brings the tidings that every mother fears.
It tells how in the Islands her darling met his death,
Fighting for flag and country midst the battle's frenzied breath,
But it don't tell how it happened, and perhaps the fates are kind,
For her darling starved on Bacon, Army Bacon on the Rind.

THE HIGH-BALL

Here's to the glorious high-ball, that fills you full of vim!
Here's to the Scotch and Rye, fill your glasses up to the brim,
Let jollity reign supremely, and drive away all care—
Then fill up your glasses, fellows, with the beverage rich and rare.

CHORUS

Drink the high-ball, at nightfall,
Be good fellows while you may,
For tomorrow may bring sorrow,
So be happy and be gay.
Sing the glories of good stories,
While your lip is full of fun.
Let the high-ball make you happy—
Here's health to everyone.

A SONG OF A FLAT-FOOT

(Contributed by Lieut. J. G. Berry, U. S. R. C. S.)

A-going 'round the galley to get a glass of flip,
Says the masther's mate of the quather-deck, "All hands

a-rollin'
And I got me jacket dusted with the bight o' the main to'-

With a right for too-ra-laddie and a right for too-ra-lay,
And a right for too-ra-laddie and a right for too-ra-lay.

A-going aft on the quather-deck wan day some frinds to

Says the masther's mate of the quather-deck, "Let go yer

"I ain't got yer trys'l sheet," says I, "The hell ye ain't," he

And a son of a gun of a bo's'n's mate he larruped me over

And now me story's inded, an' I wisht it had been shoorter,
It's all about me cruise aboard the good ship "Minnesoota."
And all ye good ship's company, I wish ye mighty well,
But the tacks and sheets and the bo's'n's mates they all may

With a right for too-ra-laddie, etc.

I'M GOIN' TO LIVE ANYHOW

AIR: "I Don't Know Why I Love You, But I Do"
(By Captain H. S. Howland, U. S. Inf.)

In the land of Mindanao,
Which, of course, you will allow,
Is the roughest, toughest country on the ma-a-p,
There's a darn rebellious king,
Who prefers to laugh and sing,
Than to take his chances with us in a scrap.

CHORUS

For he's goin' to live anyhow 'til he di-i-es,
"I'm for a natural death, you know," he si-i-ighs;
For a scrap, you see, would be the end of me—
What a 'ell of a joke on me 'twould be—
I'm goin' to live and howl until I die.

I DON'T KNOW WHY THEY WANT YOU

I don't know why they want you, but they do-o-o.
There's lots of other niggers just the same as you—
But what Piang does tell,
Makes us hike and pike like 'ell—
I don't know why they want you, but they do-o-o.

PHILIPPINE VERSION

AIR: "Everybody Works but Father"

Everybody works but a gugu,
And he sits around all day,
Smoking a large tobac—
Too strong to work for pay.
Mujer takes in washing,
To buy a good manuc;
Nobody works in that land,
So do not look.

SOLDIER'S FAREWELL

How can I bear to leave thee?
One parting kiss I give thee;
And then whate'er befalls me,
I go where honor calls me.

CHORUS

Farewell, farewell,
My own true love,
Farewell, farewell,
My own true love.

Ne'er more may I behold thee,
Or to this heart enfold thee;
With spear and pennon dancing,
I see the foe advancing.—Cho.

I think of thee with longing,
Think thou, when tears are thronging,
That with my last faint sighing,
I'll whisper soft while dying.—Cho.

"THE REGULAR ARMY, OH!"

Three years ago this very day,
We went to Governor's Isle,
For to stand forinst the cannon
In true military style.
Thirteen American dollars
Each month we surely get,
For to carry a gun and bayonet
With a regimental step.
We had our choice of going
To the Army or to jail,
Or it's up the Hudson river
With a "copper" take a sail.
So we puckered up our courage,
Wid bravery we did go,
And we cursed the day
We went away wid the Regular Army, Oh!

CHORUS

There was Sergeant John McCafferty
And Captain Donahue,
Oh! they made us march
And toe the scratch in gallant Co. "Q."
Oh! the drums do roll upon me soul,
And this is the style we go,
Forty miles a day on banes and hay
In the Regular Army, Oh!

MILITARY ORDER OF THE CARABAO

We went to Arizona
For to fight the Injuns there,
We came near being bald-headed,
But they never got our hair.
We lay among the ditches,
In the dirty yellow mud,
And we never saw an onion,
A turnip nor a spud.
Oh! we were taken prisoners
Conveyed forninst the chafe.
Oh! he said we'll make an Irish stew,
The dirty Indian thafe.
On the telegraphic wires
We walked to Mexico,
And we blessed the day we skipped away
From the Regular Army, Oh!

A DREAM

AIR: "I Dreamed I Dwelt in Marble Halls"

(By Capt. G. H. Knox, U. S. Inf.)

I dreamed that I dwelt on an isle of cracked ice,
In the midst of a lake of champagne,
Where bloomed the mint julep in meadows of green,
Amid showers of lithia rain.

I reclined on a divan of lager beer foam,
With a pillow of froth for my head,
While the spray from a fountain of sparkling gin-fizz
Descended like dew on my bed.

From far-away mountains of crystalline ice,
A zephyr refreshing and cool,
Came wafting the incense of sweet muscatel,
That sparkled in many a pool.

My senses were soothed by the soft, purling song
Of a brooklet of pusse-cafe
That rippled along over pebbles of snow
To a river of absinthe frappe.

Then lulled by the music of tinkling glass
From the schooners that danced on the deep,
I dreamily sipped a high-ball or two,
And languidly floated to sleep.

And then I awoke on a bed full of rocks,
With a bolster as hard as a brick,
A wrench in my neck, a rack in my head,
And a stomach detestably sick.

MILITARY ORDER OF THE CARABAO

With sand in my eyes and a grit in my throat,
Where the taste of last evening still clung,
I felt a bath towel stuffed in my mouth
Which I afterward found was my tongue.

And I groped for the thread af the evening before,
In the mystified maze of my brain,
Until a great light burst upon me at last,
"I'm Off of the Wagon Again."

MISERICORDIA

(By Colonel Louis Maus, M. C., U. S. A.)

Erstwhile, dear little sweetheart, with eyes of blue and slate,
Warm up the cockles of your heart, and listen to his fate,
'Tis of a lonely Carabao, within a foreign land,
Who lost his life and happiness, far from Luzon's coral strand.

Amidst the jungles and the mountains, and beside the murmuring sea,
Where groves of palms and mangoes fringe deep the distant lea,
This once contented Carabao, and king of mud and rain,
Lived happily and merrily, and never dreamed of pain.

So warm up the cockles of your heart, once dearest little friend,
And place a little chaplet upon his sad, sad bier,
For never more will happiness and peace be his refrain,
Who loved the surging of the sea, and Luzon's driving rain.

He listened to a siren and left his native shore,
His home and friends of childhood, and all, forever more,
And sailed into old Frisco, within the Golden Gate,
Where God Almighty left him, left him to his fate.

So warm up the cockles of your heart, once dearest little friend,
And breathe one sigh of pity upon his mournful end,
He loved a fair, fair, houri, with eyes of blue and slate,
Who broke his heart, God knows she did, and left him to his fate.

LAST CALL OF THE THIRSTY CARABAO

AIR: "Grand Chorus from Aguinaldo's March"

Sst, Bombinero!
The herd is mighty thirsty.
We hope that you've not fainted
Or peacefully passed away!
We've heard that camels are known to live
Eight days without a drink—
Who wants to be a camel? How!
Nosotros son Carabaos
Bombinero, hombre are you dead—hey?
Las vacas tiensen sed.

AULD LANG SYNE

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to min'?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?
In days of auld lang syne, my dear,
The days of auld lang syne,
We'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
In the days of auld lang syne.

REVELRY OF THE DYING

AIR: "Away with Melancholy"

We meet 'neath the sounding rafter,
And the walls around are bare.
As they echo our peals of laughter,
It seems that the dead are there.
But stand to your glasses, steady!
We drink to our comrades' eyes;
Quaff a cup to the dead already,
And hurrah! for the next that dies.

Cut off from the land that bore us,
Betrayed by the land we find,
Where the brightest have gone before us,
And the dullest remain behind.
Stand! stand to your glasses, steady!
'Tis all we have left here to prize;
A cup to the dead already;
Hurrah! for the next man that dies.
